The Lord Is There

Cheerful Giving Partners

2 Corinthians 9: 6-12

Let every man and woman give according as God purposed in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loves a cheerful giver. He that sows sparingly shall reap also sparingly. He that sows bountifully shall reap also bountifully.

Psalm 30

Out of the depths have I cried unto thee, O LORD.

Lord, hear my voice: let thine ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications.

If thou, LORD, shouldest mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand?

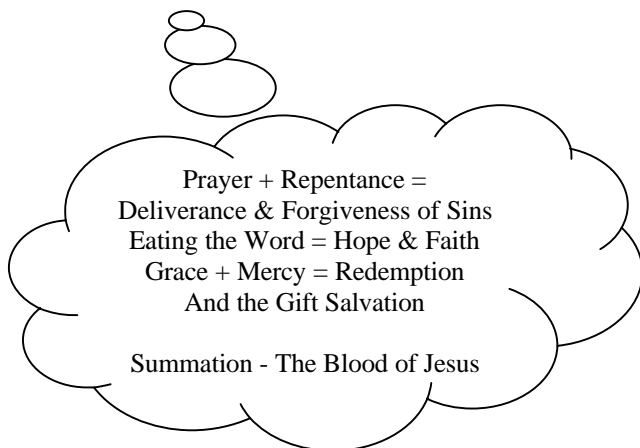

But there is forgiveness with thee, that thou mayest be feared.

I wait for the LORD, my soul doth wait, and in his word do I hope.

My soul waiteth for the Lord more than they that watch for the morning: I say, more than they that watch for the morning.

Let Israel hope in the LORD: for with the LORD there is mercy, and with him is plenteous redemption.

And he shall redeem Israel from all his iniquities.

Divine Healing

Deuteronomy 28:58-60 say that all diseases, plagues, and sicknesses were part of the curse of the law. But in Galatians 3:13 we find that Jesus redeemed us from the curse and became the curse.

In Isaiah 53:4 Isaiah prophesied of the coming Messiah. Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. In Hebrew, these words mean sicknesses and pains. In other words, part of the future atonement was not just for forgiveness of sins but also for physical healing.

We see this fulfilled in the New Testament in Matthew 8:16-17 where Matthew quotes Isaiah after seeing Jesus heal all who were sick. Even Peter in 1 Peter 2:24 quotes Isaiah by saying that it is by the stripes of Jesus we are healed. My friends, we have seen numerous healings brought about through prayer and laying on of hands by the anointed leaders of the church.

But the greatest reason why Christians don't receive or understand divine healing is because they don't understand covenant. In 1 Corinthians 11:24 Jesus says take eat this is my body broken for you, do this in remembrance of me. In verses 28 and 29, Jesus continues let a man examine himself and so let him eat of the bread and drink of the cup. For he who eats and drinks in an unworthy manner, eats and drinks judgment to himself not discerning the Lord's body.

For years I didn't understand that the Lord's physical body was broken for me to receive healing in the atonement when I participated in communion. The Lord's spiritual body, His Church, is also the other side of this picture.

How we treat each other as believers is important to God. If you hold bitterness, anger, and unforgiveness towards a brother or sister, you aren't discerning the spiritual body of the Lord and you reap judgment upon yourself by not being in position to receive the healing power of God. Paul says its because of that judgment that many are weak and sick among you and many of you die prematurely.

The next time you get sick, don't just rush to the medicine cabinet or the doctor without praying. Learn to partake in communion and go to the elders or leaders of your church and let them pray for you and the prayer of faith will raise you up!

There may be times when you will still need to seek medical attention. However, wouldn't it be better to seek God's divine healing through His Atonement? When believers base their faith upon their traditions, they render the Word God of no effect in their lives. Therefore, I challenge you to seek the scriptures for yourself and the truth will set you free!

Ann W. Williams, Hyattsville, MD
Founder, Awillamad Ministry of Intercession

On September 24, 2001, at approximately 5:15 p.m., my family and I were riding in my car going from West Hyattsville, Maryland on our way to an appointment in Greenbelt, Maryland. We traveled on University Boulevard past the University of Maryland in College Park. It was raining, as it had been raining all day.

We had just passed the University's residential housing when the rain started to come down a little harder and the traffic started to slow down and begin to backup. We realized by now that we were in the midst of a severe storm.

My daughter Shelley asked us if anyone in the car had a window down. My oldest grandson Aron, and I replied, "No". I asked her why and she replied "I can hear a whistling sound". However, neither Aron nor I could hear it.

As we watched, the sky became darker and the rain came down heavier. As I was observing the trees next to the curb lane bending almost in half as the wind blew harder and harder, I heard the Holy Spirit speak to me. Next I told Shelley, what the Holy Spirit had said: "Move the car from the curb lane to the center lane". Just then Aron said, "Grandma, look at how those telephone poles are shaking." When I began to focus on them, it seemed as though invisible, angry hands were violently shaking the poles as if trying to uproot them from the ground. We heard a huge thump on the roof of the car, and then a minute or so later, a large tree branch rolled up the front windshield over the roof of the car.

All of a sudden, tree branches, dirt, and the orange barriers used during road construction started flying all over the road. I could see cars being pushed by the wind into other cars. The whole scene seemed surreal.

Suddenly, lightning struck a telephone transformer. A ball of fire traveled down the telephone lines and through the trees. We could see trees falling all around us and even on someone's car in the intersection.

At some point during all of this, Shelley had put the car in park and turned off the engine. Aron and I said simultaneously, "I can feel the wind under the car, and it's being lifted up off the ground."

I looked to my left and I saw tiles being blown off the roofs of the student housing complex. And when I looked above the roofs, I saw the funnel cloud of the tornado.

At first my flesh took over and I became very scared. Then all of a sudden, I could hear the Holy Spirit begin to speak to me. He was saying, "Call on the name of Jesus". I began to say "Jesus, Jesus, Jesus", and then I told my family to look away from the windows, join hands and begin to pray.

We all began to pray, even Andrew, my four-year old grandson. I am an intercessory prayer warrior. I prayed like I've never prayed before reaching a new level of prayer. I could hear my voice grow from a trembling whisper to a loud rushing sound (in a deep, strong voice I've never used or heard before). As I prayed for safety and calm, I could see by the Spirit a dome of protection being put around my family and me IN THE MIDST OF THAT FIERCE TORNADO.

After the tornado had moved on and we were finally able to drive through traffic, we began our trip home. The wreckage and destruction I witnessed that day was like none I'd ever seen before. There were wrecked vehicles all over the road. We saw people who were injured. Trees were down and the road was a virtual maze of fallen debris. Even in the midst of all this, I was still praying and praising God for what He had done to bring us out of the storm. I could still hear the Holy Spirit giving directions as to which way to drive back home. All the while I was praising God and so full of joy I could not contain myself.

All of a sudden I screamed, burst out crying, and began to praise God on an even higher level. I must have startled my family when I screamed, because I could hear Andrew ask why I was crying. All I could say was, "Grandma is still praising the Lord." I told my family that the Holy Spirit had brought back to my memory something I had forgotten.

I keep a prayer journal. When we returned home after the tornado, I immediately went to my prayer/dream journal and began to read what I had written and then I showed it to Shelley. I called my son, Doc and his fiancée, Tenecia and shared with them what had happened. We began to praise the Lord together. I told my daughter and my grandsons to never forget what we had just come through because it was symbolic of what God would do for them throughout their lives as they would go through life's storms.

Now I share with you what the Holy Spirit brought back to my remembrance: Dream, July 19, 1995 – I am in the living room of the house where I grew up. Other family members are there with me. Outside, it becomes dark and windy. A severe but brief storm (tornado) arises. We are sitting on the floor in a circle. I can see the gold colored fabric on the easy chair where my father used to sit. I know that he is there in spirit.

You see, my dad passed away May 3, 1987. In the dream I think to myself, "Dad died. So I know he's not here, but I know my Heavenly Father is here with us during this storm." While sitting on the floor, my family and I join hands. I begin to pray for safety and protection. I feel calm and secure. Praise God, I will survive future storms as I am led by the Holy Spirit.

In the midst of my prayers, God had given me spiritual authority over the storm (tornado).

Trusting God In A Hopeless Situation

Aurella Cabiness, Alexandria, VA

"Here we go again," fumed Allison. Her grandmother was always dragging her to church. She just got t-i-r-e-d of going to church. Sunday School on Sunday, prayer meeting on Tuesday, Bible Study on Thursday and Lord help us if there was a revival at church in town during the week.

But this Saturday, Allison didn't complain. She was scared and the best place to be was church. In her heart she knew that, but everything was just awful right now. Both of the World Trade buildings had been destroyed, the Pentagon was hit, the President had been in hiding, and everyone she knew was glued to the TV. People were down right scared and to tell you the truth, so was Allison. Allison had heard her auntie tell her grandmother that she thought the United States was in a "HOPELESS SITUATION" and that some Christians were saying that this was the beginning of the end".

However, Grandmother told Allison's Auntie: that she stood by Psalm 91:1,2, 8-10. He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the LORD, [He is] my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust... Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked. Because thou hast made the LORD, [which is] my refuge, [even] the most High, thy habitation; There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.'

but I am going to trust in the Lord," said Grandmother.

Allison really wanted to feel that way. All week she had secretly prayed to the Lord not to let her be scared and to take away her helpless and hopeless feelings. After all, she wanted to get married, have children, and get a beautiful house. Every night she was afraid to sleep. Suppose a plane landed on her house? Every time she heard a loud thump, she jumped. She did not tell anyone, but she was just scared.

They were in church now. The people had stopped singing and were sitting down. The Pastor said that this was a special youth night and she had some young men that had come to give their testimonies.

Ricky the Addict & Drug Dealer

The first young man was Ricky Roberts. He spoke of how his father was an addict and drug dealer and he had grown up and become just like his father. He was now 24 and the Lord had saved him. He said that he always knew that he was special but until he found the Lord, he did not know how special. He talked of how he liked the nice things that he could buy with the money that he and his father stole or got from selling drugs.

But one night, God came to Ricky and told him that he had to die, not in the flesh in the Spirit. That meant that anything that he was doing that was not of God had to stop. He stated: "I was in bed when God asked me to die to all my wants, I said, 'Yes, Lord.' I can't really tell you in words what happened, but a bright light came into my bed and I was overpowered by the Holy Spirit." Ricky finished by saying, "I can't make you believe me, I just know it happened. It was wonderful." Ricky's life was HOPELESS, but God came beyond his crooked Daddy and called him to minister to other children who were growing up like he did.

Gary the Addict

Gary Lomax was next. He said that he was 39 years old and had been the only child out of six children that did not finish college. He went to jail instead of college and became an addict. One thing he did was that he became an excellent addict. However, his mother was always there.

One day after Gary came home sober from jail, his mother locked him in the house for twelve days. This allowed him to think straight for a change and he made up his mind to serve the Lord fully. He was glad that his mother did not give up on him.

Throughout the years that Gary had hurt God and his mother, they did not give up on him. He had not been a good example for his own son who was now 16 years old but Gary said that God gave his son a good mother and thus protected his son from becoming another Gary. "Nobody is HOPELESS," said Gary as he sat down.

Billy the Heroin Addict

The next young man was Billy Brannen. He was a heroin addict. He was so cute. No one would have ever thought of him as doing anything wrong. He looked like the guys that sing in the latest music groups. He started using drugs at age 12 and he was now 24 years old. Billy went to jail for 30 days and that was where the Lord touched him. Heroin addicts are supposed to be incurable, but he said, "When God touches you, nothing is HOPELESS."

James the Miracle

At the end of the service, Mr. James Brown

stood up and gave his testimony. He had an accident when a split rim from a tire exploded and knocked his head open. His brains were exposed. The doctors told his family that if he lived he would neither talk nor walk.

James said that when he opened his eyes, the doctor asked him two questions. "Do you remember what happened?" He said, "No". "Do you believe in God?" He said, "Yes". The doctor jumped up and began praising the Lord. Many people had been praying for a miracle, including the doctor. God moves in HOPELESS SITUATIONS.

Allison enjoyed the service. On the way home, she talked about the testimonies. She told her grandmother that they were nice, but what did the testimonies mean to her if a plane could kill them at any minute? Her grandmother responded, "Allison, I know that the world seems hopeless (Grandmother always seems to know her thoughts), but you just heard four men tell you of a HOPELESS SITUATION in their lives. They were addicts, drug dealers, criminals, and one was almost dead. God touched each of them and raised them all up to be ministers by using their experiences.

Grandmother continued. "This is not new stuff. Do you remember the story of Lazarus who was dead for four days and Jesus came and raised him from the dead?" Allison, nodded yes. "Well, you see Lazarus had two sisters and they looked at his death in two ways, one with hopelessness and one with hope. Although Martha went to meet Jesus, she did not believe that He could raise her brother from the dead. On the other hand Mary believed in a hopeless situation.

Allison opened her grandmother's Bible and began reading John 11:21-27. Then said Martha unto Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died. But I know, that even now, whatsoever thou wilt ask of God, God will give [it] thee. Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again. Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day. Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this? She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the world.

Grandmother smiled at Allison, "You see Allison," she said, "Jesus is still raising men from the dead. Those men today were dead in their sins. They were destroying themselves and those around them, but in HOPELESS SITUATIONS, God raised them up and changed their lives. They will never be the same. Those men, you, and I were all born in sin. Jesus came and died so that we could seek Christ with all our hearts and he would raise us up. Therefore, when He died on the cross, He sent the Holy Spirit to guide us. Once we accept Jesus in our hearts, we have the power and the authority to speak life into HOPELESS SITUATIONS in the name of Jesus.

"Your parents are drug addicts, but I believe like Martha, that even now Christ can change them. In spite of the destruction of the World Trade buildings and the attack on the Pentagon, we as Christians can say "even now Lord, show yourself in this hopeless situation." That is why I trust in God. Neither the President of the United States, you, nor I can fix this mess, but God can. So let's TRUST JESUS IN OUR HOPELESS SITUATIONS.

Allison went to bed that night and slept all night without worrying, because she decided to trust God in her hopeless situation.

Trust God in hopeless situations.

A Changed Heart

Mary Lang Marshall, Temple Hills, MD

The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it? I the Lord search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings (Jeremiah 17:9-10).

Without the shedding of blood and the resurrection of Jesus, man faced eternal separation. However, man's destiny was changed by one act of obedience. Man was freed from the penalty of sin and death. The Creator of Life lives in the heart of man. Every man has the potential to house the greatest treasure of a lifetime. It is of great value.

This earthen vessel now possesses life and more abundantly. The heart of man can be changed by the renewing of the mind through the power of the Holy Spirit. In Ezekiel 11:19-20 God said, "...I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you; and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them an heart of flesh: That they may walk in my statutes, and keep mine ordinances, and do them: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God."

Without the Holy Spirit it was and is impossible for man to carry out God's will. Man must understand God's Will for his life. He must work out his own salvation. The work of Jesus is not an option--man must take up his cross and follow Him. Daniel 11:32 says, "...But the people that do know their God shall be strong, and do exploits."

There is no excuse for being ignorant to the things of the Spirit.. As the world's knowledge increases, so should man's knowledge of God. The tricks of the Devil and his manipulations of the human mind serve only to blind one's quest for the Truth.

"A Changed Heart" (true repentance) comes from God, a supernatural insight into the heart of a loving Father. God desires to bring man back to a place of peace and rest in Him, to be reconciled unto the Creator of Life. God called, Jesus acted, and the Holy Spirit came to comfort believers.

Man does not have to live with emptiness and in darkness, because the Holy Spirit was sent to guide him into the Light of Truth. The Holy Spirit was sent to give man a way to that Light. "This is the word of the Lord unto Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the Lord of hosts" (Zechariah 4:6). Man cannot look to himself for the answer. All that ever existed is within God and anything outside of God is unlawful and temporary.

As Christians, we need the Holy Spirit to reveal the intent of our hearts. However, it is up to us to put away those things that so easily beset us. God has given us the power to withstand all the works of the enemy. Our every need has been supplied through the Holy Spirit, in the Name of Jesus.

We must believe that God's Word is true. The Bible says, "Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God." To see Him, we will experience Him; to experience Him, we will know and trust Him. When we begin to know and trust Him, He will establish us in spiritual things. Our minds will be sound and fear will not have a place in us. If we can believe that He is able to do, we must believe that He is willing to do it for us.

"Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled" (Matthew 5:6). "A Changed Heart" (a repentant heart) longs for God's Presence and waits for His Touch. The more we allow the Holy Spirit to mold us into the image of God, the more we can accomplish for God's Kingdom. Our fulfillment is in Jesus only.

A believer's strength to endure depends on God's interactions in his life. Galatians 6:9 says, "And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not." In every situation we have an opportunity to change, to have "A Changed Heart." Change does not happen all at once. It is continuous, from faith to faith.

James 1:3-4 says, "Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience. But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing." Through trials and tribulation, most do seek to be closer to God. The closer we are to God, the more we become like Christ. A life in Christ Jesus produces love, holiness, honesty, integrity, sanctification and obedience, etc.

Out of the heart the mouth speaks. What is in your heart will eventually manifest. "A Changed Heart" is heavenly-minded and worth more than earthly gold. With hymns and psalms "A Changed Heart" carries a melody of its own. Every day is an opportunity to share the gospel or to encourage others to look up, because the Day of the Lord is at hand. Our Blessed Hope is coming!

Jesus's love takes away the sting and the hurt of shame and persecution that a child of God endures. Where the life of God exists, death cannot reign. If we linger near the Throne of God our senses are heightened and become more aware of heavenly things. Satan cannot blind those who walk in the Light of God.

When we are born again, we are new creatures in Christ Jesus. Old things are passed away and all things are made new. We are born into the family of God. We are spirit beings. The true child of God cannot be seen through natural eyes, but through spiritual eyes.

God is our Source and not our resource. We look unto Jesus who is the author and finisher of our faith. If we need a promotion or an increase, we ask our Father in heaven and He will give it to us freely. The Father of Life is able to do exceedingly, abundantly above all that we could think or ask. Nothing is impossible with God.

"A Changed Heart" cannot live without the Breath of God. It runs to, and not from, His Embrace.

These things saith He that is holy, He that is true, He that hath the KEY OF DAVID, He that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth; I lay upon His shoulder; so He shall open, and none shall shut; and He shall shut, and none shall open.

I am He that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the KEYS OF HELL AND OF DEATH. Behold I give unto my servant the KEY OF KNOWLEDGE and I give unto him the KEYS OF THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN and whatsoever He shall Bind on Earth shall be Bound in Heaven and whatsoever He shall Loose on Earth shall be Loosed in Heaven.

Surely the Lord GOD will reveal His secret unto His servants the prophets. Because it is given unto us to know the mysteries of the Kingdom of Heaven. But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.

Heavenly Father,

You said a Minister of the Gospel is to eat and live by partaking of the altar gifts, and your tithing plan, which is reserved for the purpose of paying your servants who are on the battlefield. We confess that we have been chosen and sent to do this good ministry work, and that your LIVING WORD says that we must be thoroughly furnished for it. All the riches are yours, and all the silver and gold.

Now, in the NAME OF JESUS, and by the powers invested in us, for it is the Anointing that destroys the Yoke, breaking every bond and setting the captives free. We LOOSEN the holds of the Devil and BIND his forces, whatever they be, upon our supply from those who are holding on to them. Lord Jesus your WORD says whatsoever we shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. So as it is written, So let it be done in Jesus's Name.

Lord, we have brought the tithes into thy storehouse, that there may be meat in thy house, and now we prove You, LORD of hosts, to open unto us the windows of heaven, and pour us out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it. And LORD, rebuke the devourer for our sakes, that he should not destroy the fruits of our ground; neither shall our vine cast her fruit before the time in the field. Let all nations call us blessed for thy Holy Name's sake.

We loose the Kingdom End-time Funds. We release our supply and direct it in Jesus's Name, to be forthcoming to us so that our ministry and work may go unhampered for the Kingdom of God. Now we ask You LORD to send Your Ministering Spirits and Angels of Fire to bring in these finances in Jesus's Name.

Father, you are able to make all grace, favor and earthly blessings come to us in abundance. We realize that you are working on this and we wait patiently with thankful hearts hoping to receive in faith. We will give you all the praise, glory and honor in Jesus's Name, we pray. Amen.

The Great Wealth Transfer

Clay Sikes

God intends to move much wealth into the hands of those capable of handling it. Much of the shaking that is taking place now will prepare the Church for the massive harvest of souls as we approach the end of the age. This harvest will require money.

I sense that we are at the tail end of an initial work relative to God's Plan for the use of money. Much of this move has obviously been more flesh than Spirit. As with Sara the wife of Abraham, who had God's direction but lacked His timing or specific course, the first attempt at prosperity, THE PRESENT PROSPERITY MESSAGE, has produced many Ishmaels, appealing to greed, self-righteousness, and doctrines of man directing God. The message is rooted in the flesh with impatience and greed – "It's my time to get my stuff from my God!"

What we will soon see is a true Isaac in the form of a true prosperity message that speaks of a great wealth transfer which ONLY involves dead men, men who have nothing but God's Purpose in their heart. Some may be disappointed to hear that God will not allow great riches (mammon) to destroy man in order that man finance great works for God. Unlike Ishmael, God created Isaac for God's purposes. Unlike Ishmael, God does not have to fight through flesh in dealing with Isaac. God's Purpose for His men relative to money is soon to be evident in the earth, but this purpose will only work in men who have been tested by the fires of affliction, men whose trust for God is matched by God's trust for them.

The time for pleading and begging is over. God pays for what He orders. His resources are in place and those with a sense of destiny and purpose will find the necessary resources, spiritual and natural, to perform His Will. How great it is to step into the Jordan, without a boat or bridge, and see the river part. Watch as God continues to raise up a remnant of people who will exercise complete control over mammon, and who will neither be swayed to the left or right, or up or down, but rather, will flow with His Spirit in financial affairs. Think it not a strange thing that even now God is requiring us to trust him completely in the area of money. True trust in Him requires a revelation of His Rest, which is where we have ceased from our own works and God is truly our Provider. Trust is obedience and the willing and obedient eat the good of the land.

The time for trickery and deception is over. When we give in an effort to move the Hand of God, we have entered the arena of self-righteousness, a product of the world's system. The world's system will no longer work for the called of God. In the days to come, much will be exposed about the real motive relative of the present day prosperity message. Many will leave these ranks wounded and disappointed. However, even now God is raising tried, true men of God who know that Godliness with contentment is great gain, that to chase money is to leave the blessing of God, that the Word without the Spirit is law, and that God's provision comes through relationship and not formula.

The time for hype and emotional manipulation is over. Men will begin to see that the play upon the souls (emotions) of men will no longer extract large sums of money for man inspired good works that look like God, but of which God has no part. Discernment in the Body will evaporate this long used, often-abused way of man (the world's system).

Begin to realize that just as you cannot receive life from those with blood types that do not match yours, so is the spiritual blood that courses your spiritual veins - YOU CANNOT RECEIVE LIFE FROM THOSE WHOSE SPIRITUAL BLOOD DOES NOT MATCH YOURS! In fact, as you mix your blood with theirs, death occurs. The modern day prosperity message is death! Ministers, Ministries, and Churches with the bless me! bless me! bless me! motive will bring death to those whose motive is to dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
